

FIRST CONFERRAL OF DEGREES

On 5 December 2008 the International School for Social and Business Studies (ISSBS) conferred degrees to its first graduates.

In 2008 ISSBS designated 5 December Dean's Day. On this day the ISSBS conferred degrees to the first graduates of the masters study programme Knowledge Management who graduated in the academic year 2007/2008. The degrees were conferred by ISSBS's dean, doc. dr. Srečko Natek, in the presence of the faculty's associate deans, pred. Suzana Košir, pred. mag. Valerij Dermol and doc. dr. Kristijan Musek Lešnik.

ISSBS's dean in his address to graduates, their guests, mentors and professors presented the faculty's achievements in the previous academic year and emphasised the importance of the gained professional title. He concluded his speech with best wishes for graduates in their careers and their personal lives. During the ceremony guests had a chance to listen to Ms. Ajša Svetlin, professor at the Secondary Music School Celje, perform Stanko Prek's guitar piece Nokturno.

In future all conferrals of degrees will take place on Dean's Day which will as a non-working day be marked with various formal and informal events aimed at students, higher education teachers and associates of the ISSBS.

